

Finally.... it's priming time. the temperature is well over 10 degrees for the first time this year... this has been the worst winter ever as far as temperatures are concerned.

I scuffed all parts yesterday and labeled them for left and right.

Primed all parts for the firewall, F704 and F705 bulkheads.

